

NOT AGAINST CARSON.

Our neighbor the Tribune publishes a column and a half of indirect matter the gist of which is that it is a very deplorable circumstance that anyone should wish to prosecute any of the parties who have stolen bullion from the Mint.

Here is a specimen of its reasoning: Why do some of our esteemed local contemporaries frequently work against Carson by indulging in personal attacks, through personal motives upon prominent citizens of the town, and giving aid and comfort to those great blackmailers—giants of wealth and power, yet none the less blackmailers—the San Francisco journals which, with garbled reports of evidence, and lying insinuations, are seeking to destroy the reputation of certain of our wealthy citizens.

We would be better satisfied if our esteemed contemporary across the street were to name some newspapers in Carson who have causelessly attacked some of our "prominent citizens" and attempted to destroy the reputation of some of our "wealthy citizens."

The APPEAL has from time to time stated, which everyone knows to be a fact, that some of our "prominent citizens" are also prominent as thieves and rascals.

Prominence and wealth has never prevented the APPEAL stating the truth about people whose wealth has come from dishonesty, and whose prominence comes from being able to blackmail wealthy men into supporting them for anything they want.

To gloss over the shortcomings of wealthy and prominent people has never been the mission of this journal.

The Tribune need not fear that an honest exposure of the Mint rascals will ever give this city a black-eye.

When the real culprits are committed and jailed, it will show the world that this is an honest community that will not lend itself to the nefarious work of shielding crime.

The shortage is the blot against the town and State, and when the authors of it are cracking rock in the Penitentiary the blot will be removed. This is the only way out of it.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The ladies of Stockton printed a twelve page paper on Easter. Here's what they have to say about it.

Some of our people got an impression that men were going to write for this paper—that it couldn't be filled if we didn't have men to help us. Huh!

We want it distinctly understood that no horrid, puffed-up male biped had anything to do with the original matter in this paper. To show this we tried to get each lady to sign her full name to contributions. Where the name doesn't appear it is because the lady just wouldn't do it, and we know our own sex well enough not to waste feminine breath in trying to change her mind.

The editor of the New York Evening Post says that Mr. Dana of the Sun "has published nothing indicative of knowledge or culture." But the Post editor cannot say that Mr. Dana's editorials do not indicate a tolerably accurate knowledge of some of his contemporaries.—Call.

This is what the APPEAL comes out strong. It is not exactly a fine de sicle sheet, but its memory for some that have sojourned in the State of Nevada during the last 20 years is tolerably accurate.

A Dispatch has been published in nearly all the papers that Dr. Nansen the Norwegian explorer has reached the north pole, and that it is located in a chain of mountains. The story also says that the intrepid explorer planted the Norwegian flag at the pole. Several hundred lives will now be lost trying to prove that the real pole has not been discovered and that the Norwegian flag has never been planted there.

As a matter of courtesy Senator Jones of Nevada and his fellow tourists are entitled to a very cordial welcome in Denver, and we hope that they will be accorded a memorable reception by all of our leading citizens regardless of political differences of opinion, tomorrow evening.—Denver Republican.

The gold men have decided to head their forces with Grover Cleveland. This is just what the Silver men want. No man can be elected a third time President of the United States and the fates have said it.

China and Japan have agreed on terms of peace. It costs so much to make peace with Japan that it's a wonder they don't go to war again as an economic measure.

ALL SORTS.

The actual Mint shortage is $75,-499,075.

Local detectives are now being retained by the defense in the Mint cases.

Miss Ida Higgins of Lake View is spending a few days in town visiting friends.

The Enterprise now reprints Carson news from the APPEAL, but takes care to credit it to our esteemed Carson contemporaries.

It is reported that two prominent Washington lawyers are on their way here to assist in the prosecution of the Mint matter.

The Pioche Record says agent of Los Angeles parties are entering considerable quantities of land in Muddy Valley, Lincoln county.

President Harrison has paid off $206,000,000 of the public debt. President Cleveland will offset this by increasing it about that amount.

The picture of Durrant the San Francisco murderer, will now take the place of Li Hung Chang for a while in the San Francisco papers.

Now is the season of the year when you lay in your supply of wall paper. John G. Fox has some new designs and such a variety on hand that you cannot help be satisfied.
